WED. JULY 22, 1903.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor,

J. C. W. BECKHAM.

For Lieutenant Governor,

W. P. THORNE.

For Auditor of State,

S. W. HALEP.

For Treasurer,

H. M. BOSWORTH.

For Attorney General,

N. B. HAYS.

For Secretary of State,

H. V. MCCHESNEY.

For Sept. of Public Instruction,

J. H. FUQUA.

For Commissioner of Agriculture,

HUBERT VREELAND.

For Clerk of Court of Appeals,

MORGAN CHINN.

FOR RAILROAD COMMISSIONER,

HON. C. C. MCHORD

THE REPUBLICANS OF KENTUCKY

have nominated a man for Governor who is so selfish that the fencing about his landed estate is put together so closely that a rabbit cannot get through, and too high for a poor man to climb. In other words he is an aristocrat, a man of wealth who feels that money makes the man, but while he may wear the high silk hat and use a gold-headed cane, yet he is a fine business man and will make a strong race. A new convert to the Republican party, a new convert from the cash department of a large hardware business into the trophy turmoil of political action, relying mainly on the cohesive power of the almighty dollar to crown his ambitions with success and become

Governor of Kentucky. Mr. Belknap has successfully engineered his battle up to date in opposition to some of the strongest and most astute politicians within his party.

He captured the organization in Louisville and converted it to his own use. He has the backing of Sapp and Sapp works for results.

It is not a question now days as to the means used but only the ends accomplished. We presume that the afforementioned nominee suits the Republicans in this part of the state, that he will make a strong race, but after the smoke of battle has cleared off, when the campaign has passed into the beyond and the results become cold facts, it will appear that there was another man in the race, the nominee of the Democratic party, who stands on his own record and achieves great victories. Mr. Beckham has never been defeated. He successfully met and defeated the high stepper of Boyle, three years ago, and will defeat the city aristocrat with an increased majority. Democrats

CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE.

At a meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee last week that Messrs. Bell and Hardin, of Mercer county, were the nominees for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney in the thirteenth judicial district. Messrs. Sanley and Oswley gracefully submitted, promising their hearty support to the successful contestants. The district is in good shape, hence the election of Bell and Hardin is a foregone conclusion.

Chairman—S. W. Hager. Judge J. E. Riddle, of Graves; J. M. Lassing, of Boone; the Hon. Lewis McGowan, of Bowling Green; the Hon. John A. Fulton, of N. J.; the Hon. Henry Prewitt, of Mt. Sterling.

Every thing points to the fact that Kentucky Republicanism is to be Democratically administered.

The old stagers fall by the way and the 1896 converts come to the front.

BREEDING.

Oat harvest is about over in this section. The yield was very good.

The following drummers called upon our merchants last week: J. Q. Alexander, E. B. McLean, Dan Card and W. R. Lyon.

Rev. S. G. Shelley and wife died with R. P. Breeding last Friday.

Dick Roe has been wearing a broad smile for the last few days. It is a boy.

Mrs. J. M. Campbell was taken sick last Friday night and at this writing is no better.

John Edmons, a very prominent farmer and stockman of Marrowbone, passed through here Saturday, en route to Gradyville.

Yes, the Breeding correspondent believes there should be a hog law; not for Adair county alone, but for the entire State. I would be thankful for the assistance of Ozark correspondent in securing the passage of this law. But alas, he threatens dissolution; says he is going to Texas, where he says sorrow is unknown. But the Breeding correspondent believes that when he reaches that State, and starts to the field some warm morning and forgets to take his overcoat and a "norther" comes along and he is frozen stiff or he could reach home, he will wish he was in Kentucky; and then when the drought sets in and he has to go ten miles for a drink of water, and when he gets it, it appears to be alive with mosquitoes, he will doubtless turn and "hit the road in high places" until he reaches old Kentucky, where famines are unknown and where fountains of water as pure as that which flowed from the rock in the wilderness are abundant.

Prof. Noah Loy, of Fairplay, has removed to this neighborhood. The Professor is teaching the Flat Rock school.

Melvin Patty will remove to Harvey Ridge and engage in the logging business.

The school at this place will open the 27th inst., with Holland Simpson as teacher.

The Columbia Fair privileges will be sold to the highest bidder at the court-house door the first Monday in August at 2 o'clock p. m. Bond will be required of purchaser.

C. S. HARRIS, Secretary.

No premium will be given for needle work and kitchen products this year, but ladies will be admitted free the first day. Remember that the first day will have good shows.

The Adair County Sunday School Convention will be held at Cave Valley on Saturday, the 28th day of July, 1903. All Sunday Schools in the county are invited to send delegates and all Superintendents, Officers and Teachers are expected to be present. Mr. Gebauer, the State Field Worker, will be present. A programme will be duly published.

J. R. HODMAN, President.

A recruiting officer was not so successful in Jameson as the one who stopped at Columbia. Only one man was secured in Russell county, John Franklin, who married in this county and removed to Jameson about one year ago.

The condition of the Pope remains unchanged. The patient is able to take nourishment, and may live a week or two. He is 98 years old. There is much speculation as to who will become the head of the Catholic Church at his death.

An Ex-Democrat heads the Republican ticket in the State and outside of being a new convert it is alleged that he has the old cash "to make the mare go."

GOV. DUBOIS'S LAWLESSNESS.

Call in the searching parties. The right man to be nominated for vice president on the republican ticket is found. The southern press is filled with laudation of Governor Dubois, of Indiana, for getting his troops to Evansville after the war was over and then refusing to let the courts of justice deal with the case according to its constitutional jurisdiction. In all which he only revamps his bad conscience, was in the Governor Taylor case from Kentucky, and proves that he is himself as lawless as any man who was a party to the mob that rioted in Evansville.

His disregard of the rights of the judiciary department of the state makes him all the more persona grata with a party and newspapers that believe in imperial methods of dealing with all questions that affect the state and nation. He would fit admirably into the ticket to be presented by that party to the country next year. He would be a brilliant example and exponent of the "higher law" which is, in the southern conscience, always superior to constitutional and statutory law.

The constitution does not say these things. Dubois's case is too plain to be missed by any fair-minded citizen. We would say as much against the same methods, if practiced by any other governor in any section of the union.

Governor Dubois, by his treatment of the Evansville case and courts, has done more to bring order and procedure and judicial authority into contempt than the mob did or could. He has overthrown both the courts and a coordinate branch of the state government. In doing so he seems to have earned the applause of the leading republicans of his nation.—Atlanta Constitution.

With seeming sincerity President Roosevelt announced that there should be a full investigation of the alleged rotteness in the Post Office department. In the face of this announcement the public had a right to expect that an effort would be made to purify the service, and lift this department of the government clear of the scandals that attach to it. If the investigation is being prosecuted the public has no information of it, for the President has instructed the Postmaster General to give out nothing along this line. It is said that the President was prompted to this course, by the advice of Clarkson, Platt and other practical politicians. If they can prevent it, they do not intend the administration shall be embarrassed in this way. They are afraid of its effect on the coming presidential election.—Georgetown Times.

An exchange says: There's no use worrying, fretting and losing sleep because someone has found fault with what you do. 'Tis the common lot of man in business. The merchant doesn't please all his customers; the postmaster is cuffed and kicked for alleged mistakes; the railroad agent is frequently tacked up in a corner and given to understand and the other thing; the butcher is forever reminded of the tough steak, and even the minister finds it hard to please all the congregation with his best sermons. If you do not believe this 'tack these men. The newspaper man gets more than his share of it and is expected to get out a cheerful newspaper all the same. A man befriends another 'for years and is turned down and abused. Such things are not pleasant, but they always have been and always will be, and the man who expects them then the easiest is the one who pays the least attention to them and goes right along trying to be pleasant and useful.

BOYGRAPHS.

As a rule many boys have many fathers, and always have womanly mothers.

If fathers realized that their boys walked in their footsteps they might try to take some of the kinks out of their paths.

The worst fight a boy ever encounters is that which confronts him when he undertakes to ask her for the first time if he can "see her home."

When father and son are companions both are made better by the fact.

The boy's bedroom should be one of the brightest, lightest and most cheerful rooms in the house.

Boys are never made bad by being given plenty of good books to read.

When a business man receives a statement from a wholesale house—and he receives many—he sometimes finds on the statement that unless paid by a certain date a sight draft will be drawn for the amount due, and no excuses are made for sending the statement. The business man has to move about and pay up the bill. But while the business man sends out statements to those owing him, in an effort to raise money to pay his bills, what takes place many times? The person receiving the statement takes it as an insult and grows exceedingly hot. The person who does this should engage in business and in a short time would get over his foolishness. The sending out of statements and the collecting of accounts is one of the most important parts of business and those who neglect it will sooner or later become short of money.

DIED.
The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Collins and claimed as its own their darling baby, age eighteen months and ten days. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away, blessed be the name of the Lord. Jesus saw best to take him home where there is no sickness and trouble and where partings never come.

Rev. Nathan Murrell officiated at the burial.

Brutally Tortured.
A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golubick of Coates, Calif., writes, "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain caused by a tumor on my back. I thought I tried everything known. I came across electric blisters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for liver and kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by druggist.

Lafayette Brooks, of Morgan county, one of the most notorious convicts in the Frankfort penitentiary, attempted to commit suicide by leaping from the third story of the shoe factory, a distance of 40 feet. He sustained injuries which it is believed will prove fatal. Brooks figured in the outbreak at the Frankfort penitentiary last year, when Wallace Bishop, a fellow convict, was killed.

Married in Death's Shadow.

It often happens that a couple is united in marriage when one is afflicted with consumption or a deep-seated cough or cold. There's danger in this is marrying in the shadow of death. Immediate steps should be taken to expel the trouble. There's nothing will so quickly remove the danger as Dr. King's new discovery for consumption, coughs and cold. It's equally safe and sure for lung and throat troubles. Cure is guaranteed by druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

BIG BUILDINGS

For Live Stock at Kentucky State Fair. Owensboro Making Great Preparations For The Big Fall Attraction.

The preparations now in progress both at the Louisville headquarters and at Owensboro indicate that the State Fair which begins at Owensboro on September 21st, will be the biggest event of the kind ever attempted south of the Ohio river.

Aside from the long and splendid list of amusements, to which has now been added the famous Dr. Garver and his show, and also races, without pool selling, the Fair will be an education to all persons interested in Live Stock, Agriculture, Horticulture, Mining and House hold work.

Contracts have just been let for nine cattle barns with a capacity of 600 cattle; five stables with a capacity of 500 horses; two buildings with a capacity of 300 sheep; two buildings with a capacity of 400 swine; one poultry house with a capacity of 1,500 birds; one mineral exhibit hall, which is a new feature, and one office building. The amphitheatre has a capacity of 10,000 and is one of the largest in the United States.

Election of officers.
The convention will be opened promptly at 9:30 a. m.

There will be dinner on the ground. The ladies are requested to furnish music which will be interspersed through the proceedings.
Leading speakers will be allowed ten minutes on the subjects mentioned in the program, and every one present will be requested to speak five minutes on any subject named.
By the Executive Committee.

It has been learned that the defense in the trial of Curtis Jett and Tom White may ask for a continuance at Cynthiana on the ground that the evidence as given in the preceding trial has not been furnished them. Ed Osborn, the stenographer, says the manuscript has been in readiness for a week and there has been no call for it. Judge Osborne is said to be of the opinion that a postponement cannot be secured.
